Dear Parents

Thank you again for attending our Royal Tea Party. The weather was fabulous and it was a lovely relaxed afternoon with great refreshments. My thanks to the FAS for organising - we think that the event raised about £200, which is fantastic.

Merit Certificates were not presented last week because of the Tea Party - and as a result I have had a lot to print out & sign this week! Well done to all these children for their fantastic attitude and achievement:

RED:	Joshua B
ORANGE:	Libby, Phoebe, Mason
YELLOW:	Holly, Joseph, Archie
GREEN:	Taya, Woody, Jack B, Vishnu, Oscar, Milli
BLUE:	Theo, Stanley L, Archer, Lillie, Henry, Harrison, Loren, Amelie, Lenny
INDIGO:	Eve, Ayva, Evelyn, Emily, Isla, Sophia, Rocco, Toby, Caitlyn, Mei, Cameron, Laylah, Theo, Brandon

The Archdeacon very much enjoyed her visit to Ardeley. The Eucharist service was lovely and the children made me very proud with both their behaviour and their beautiful singing. Thank you to those parents who came along.

We are starting a school Twitter account and trialing it for school journey. We will then roll it out to the whole school as a quick way to stay in touch (without needing to open emails).

Please remember you need to do 2 things to access the account:

1. Find @ardeleyschool on Twitter and request to follow us (it will show as pending)
2. Return the slip to school with your twitter account name

I then match up the slips with the follower requests to ensure that ONLY parents of the school can see our 'tweets' and add you to our account.

As I am sure you know from your own email inbox, the new GDPR regulations come into force today! We will shortly be adding privacy notices to our website which explain what data we hold, why we hold it and what we do with it. As a school we have to hold certain data by law and therefore are permitted to do so. We will be continuing to improve our policies and other documents over the next few months to ensure that we stay compliant with the new regulations.

I hope you all have a lovely half term and that the children return refreshed for what is one of the busiest and most exciting terms in the school year.

With kind regards,
Mrs Connolly
